2 Prerequisites:

A strong aptitude for basic mathematical techniques will be necessary for the course. The following is a partial list of the mathematical techniques that will be used in the course: algebra, vector algebra, analytic geometry, differential and integral calculus.

Completing MATH 150 with a grade C or better is an official prerequisite for the course.

3 Course description

The course will broadly cover topics on Mechanics, Oscillations and Mechanical waves, and Thermodynamics. These are covered in the first twenty two chapters of the textbook. We will cover a fair amount in the limited time available.

Textbook

The following is the assigned textbook for the course:

Physics: for Scientists and Engineers by Raymond A. Serway and John W. Jewett, Jr.
9th Edition, Brooks/Cole Cengage Learning.

An older edition of the assigned textbook, or most of the similar textbooks in the market, should be sufficient for the course. Openly licensed textbooks are also decent substitutes for the assigned textbook, for example, OpenStax, University Physics. OpenStax. 19 September 2016.

This publication is licensed under a Creative Commons License 4.0 International. The electronic copy of the textbook is available for free at <http://cnx.org/content/col12031/latest/>. A professionally printed copy of the publication is available in the market for a nominal price.

Web-page

Relevant notes, recordings of lecture, and homework will be posted at <http://www.sphics.com/tc/202201-SIU-P205A/>.

It is advisable to download relevant materials to your computer, because the website (or the Internet) could be occasionally down. SIU MyCourses, powered by Desire2Learn (D2L), at a password protected site, will be used to post grades. D2L will also be used for submission of Quiz, Homework, and Exam.

<https://mycourses.siu.edu>,

Lectures

Lectures will be delivered in Neckers 440, or on Zoom, during the scheduled class periods (Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays 12:00-12:50 PM). On Zoom the lectures will be recorded. These recordings will be made available on YouTube as ‘Unlisted’ videos. These videos will not be public in the sense that it will not show up under a search, but anyone with the link to the video can access it.

4 Course work

Evaluation

Quiz	10 %
Homework	30 %
Midterm Exams (3 × 15 %)	45 %
Final Exam	15 %

Homework

Homework will be assigned about once in a week. Homework will be based on the concepts covered in the classroom and will mostly be based on problems from the textbook. Students are encouraged to discuss the homework with their classmates, everyone around them, and the instructor. Students are allowed to use any resource available to them for completing the homework. Homework submission will consist of scanned images of pages as a single PDF file on D2L.

Homework will be graded primarily for the presentation of the thought process. Intermediate steps will be awarded points. The final answer should have the right units and correct number of significant digits. It is the responsibility of the student to present the work clearly.

If a student can attend the lectures and afterwards complete the homework without consulting resources, including the textbook, then the student should consider prepared for the exams. However, if it becomes necessary to refer to resources, which is most often the case, one should keep track of the extent of this assistance. Then, the recommendation is to work on similar problems in the textbook until satisfactory independence has been achieved.

Exams

Four examinations (including the final exam) will be administered.

Midterm Exam 01	February 7 (Monday, in class)
Midterm Exam 02	March 4 (Friday, in class)
Midterm Exam 03	April 11 (Monday, in class)
Final Exam	Available after third week of classes

The exams will be available on the course webpage and on D2L. All the exams will be open notes, open book, open resource. You will have the complete class period to work on the exam, take pictures, and submit the file on D2L. Consulting another person during exam will be considered academic misconduct.

The midterm exams will assess you on concepts covered in lectures, homework, and textbook material. All the midterm exams will be cumulative, but you are advised to concentrate more on topics covered in the later part of the semester. The exams will be graded to get a general notion of the students development in the course.

If your absence from the exam is properly authorized with an appropriate “University Form for Excused Absences”, which usually needs to be given to the instructor before the absence, your average score in all the exams might be used to cover for the missed exam. Makeup exams are typically not entertained, because they are less predictable, tend to not follow the standard style, and if administered could be an oral exam.

Quizzes

Quizzes constituting exercises, or topics, will be mentioned during the lectures on a spontaneous basis. The student is expected to pose the question, explore the answer, briefly summarize what they learned in a few sentences, and submit on D2L. Do not spend more than ten minutes on a quiz. The grading of quizzes will not be for correctness and mostly for attempting. The points earned in the quizzes decides the percentage of the curve parameter in Eq. (1) used to boost your grade.

Grading

The grading will be done on a scale of 0-100. This ‘Raw Score’  $x$  (out of 100) should be used to assess your knowledge in the subject. The ‘Raw Score’ will be converted to the university scale using the following formula for ‘Your Score’  $x'$ ,

$$x' = x + ay(100 - x), \quad (1)$$

where  $0 \leq a \leq 1$  is the curve parameter chosen by the instructor and  $0 \leq y \leq 1$  is determined by your points in quizzes (out of 1.00). For example, for  $a = 0.50$  and  $y = 0.75$ , a ‘Raw Score’ of 60 will lead to ‘Your Score’ of 75. The following is the grading scheme for the course. Here  $x'$  is ‘Your Score’ in percent.

$90 \leq x' \leq 100$	A
$80 \leq x' < 90$	B
$70 \leq x' < 80$	C
$55 \leq x' < 70$	D
$0 \leq x' < 55$	F

Accommodations and services are determined through an interactive process with students and may involve consideration of specific course design and learning objectives in consultation with faculty.

MILITARY COMMUNITY

There are complexities of being a member of the military community and also a student, and military and veteran related developments can complicate academic life. If you are a member of the military community and in need of accommodations please visit Veterans Services at <http://veterans.siu.edu/>.

STUDENT MULTICULTURAL RESOURCE CENTER

The Student Multicultural Resource Center serves as a catalyst for inclusion, diversity and innovation. As the Center continues its work, we are here to ensure that you think, grow and succeed. ## SAFETY AWARENESS FACTS AND EDUCATION

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find the appropriate resources here: <http://safe.siu.edu>

COVID-19

SIUC's policy on face masks and social distancing is consistent with the guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Illinois Department of Public Health. For up-to-date information, students, faculty, and staff should visit SIUC's COVID website (siu.edu/coronavirus), which includes the Saluki Safety Plan. People can also send an email to pandemicinfo@siu.edu.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY ~ Undergraduate only

Students who officially register for a session must officially withdraw from that registration in a timely manner to avoid being charged as well as receiving a failing grade for those classes. An official withdrawal must be initiated by the student, or on behalf of the student through the academic unit, and be processed by the Registrar's office. For the proper procedures to follow when dropping courses and when withdrawing from SIUC visit: <http://registrar.siu.edu/students/withdrawal.php>
